FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

The Interoceanic Canal—Public Buildings—Vance and the Executive Letter Books.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 29.—Senator Kernan presented petitions of claimants to the unappropriated balance of the Geneva award; also persons not claimants, all citizens of New York. Among the latter, including Drexel, Morgan & Co., Daniel Harris, Neff and others, praying for legislation whereby claimants under the Geneva award may be enabled to present, prove and obtain judgment on their claims.

Senator Kernan, and others, presented petitions of ex-soldiers against the passage of the Senate bill for examinations in pension cases.

On motion of Senator Edmunds it was resolved that when the Senate adjourn to-day it be to meet on Monday next.

On motion of Senator Gordon, a resolution was adopted providing for a committee of nine Senators to consider the subject of the interoceanic canal.

Senator Butler sent to the Clerk's desk and had read a letter from Hon. Samuel Dibble, of South Carolina, calling attention to an omission in Senator Bruce's bill for the promotion of education among the colored race of South Carolina of the Agricultural College and Claflin University, two of the most important institutions in the State for colored people.

Senator Jones, Florida, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported, with amendments, a bill for the erection of public buildings at Danville, Virginia. Placed on calendar.

Senator Bailey, from Postoffice Committee, reported with amendment Senate joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay Southern mail contractors for carrying the mails prior to May 31st, 1861, upon presentation of proof that they have not been paid either by the Confederate or United States government. Placed on calendar.

Bills were introduced and referred as follows:

By Senator Jones, of Florida, a bill for making the port of Tampa a port of entry.

By Senator Vance, of North Carolina, a bill for the restoration of the executive letter books of the State of North Carolina.

Senator McDonald, from the Judiciary committee, reported adversely on the bill to declare legal the effect of permits to purchase products in the insurrectionary States, and it was indefinitely postponed.

The Senate then took up and passed the bill for the relief of Internal Revenue Collector Kearney, at Corpus Christi, Texas.

Senator Allison, from the committee on Appropiations, reported, with sundry amendments, House bill making appropriations for fortifications and other works of defense; ordered printed and placed on the calendar.

Adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

Regular order being demanded the House resumed consideration of the bill declaring all public roads, highway and post routes. The previous question was seconded and the bill passed, yeas 134, nays 97.

Mr. Knott, from the Judiciary committee, reported the back bill for the relief of the owners and purchasers of lands sold for direct taxes in the insurrectionary States. Placed on the calendar.

Mr. New, from the same committee, reported the back bill amending Section 740 of the Revised Statutes relating to suits in the Circuit and District courts. Passed.

Mr. Herbert, of Alabama, from the same committee, reported the back bill fixing the maximum time of service of jurors in the United States courts at three weeks. The morning hour expired and the bill went over without action.

The House then resumed consideration of the Revised Rules, and having reached Rule XI, adjourned.

Trouble Brewing.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—A Columbia, S. C., special says: Great excitement has been caused here by the publication of a very bitter letter by Colonel John Haskell, son-in-law to Senator Hampton, in which serious charges are made against General Mont. W. Gary. This has grown out of the Gary-Hampton controversy, and will undoubtedly lead to serious results. General Gary, who is at his home in Edgefield, has been telegraphed for and will reach here to-morrow, when it is thought that the affair will culminate in bloodshed. Senator Hampton is here, but Mr. Haskell explicitly states that the letter was written without his knowledge.

Whisky and Murder.

GALVESTON, Jan. 29.—A special dispatch to the News from Sherman, Texas, says: A party of drunken roughs while creating a disturbance of Baguio, were ordered to leave by city marshall, Ball. Alf Johnson refused to go, and Ball ejected him. When outside Johnson drew a pistol and shot Ball in the breast. Ball seized Johnson's pistol and drawing his own weapon shot Johnson dead. Johnson's brother and others shot at Ball, one shot cutting his face, the powder burning his eye-brows and blinding him. Ball lies in a critical condition.

Fire Damp Explosion.

MOUDEN, Jan. 29.—Fifteen lives have been lost by a fire damp explosion in the colliery at Meetzen, Saxony. Ten of the bodies have been recovered.

Took their Seats.

AUGUSTA, Me., Jan. 29.—Seven of the Fusion Senators and twenty-two of the Fusion Representatives took their seats in the regular Legislature to-day, and were cordially received.

Brooklyn's Financial Condition.

New York Star.

It is a matter of common notoriety that the city of Brooklyn stands upon the perilous verge of bankruptcy; the fact will not be denied by her chief financial officer. Staggering under a debt of $40,000,000, Brooklyn is unable to pay the interest as it accrues upon that colossal load, and is augmenting her obligations through the make-shift policy of issuing fresh bonds to meet accumulating demands. Thousands of parcels of property in Brooklyn have been abandoned by their owners, who deem it cheaper to forfeit the lots than pay the exorbitant assessments.

Impressions of America.

Two forlorn looking Germans, evidently newly arrived emigrants, stood in Madison square this morning, gazing at the gay and busy scene always presented in that locality, in rapt admiration, said one, pointing to the Seward statue, "Dot ish der most beautiful likeness mit Schiller vot I effer could see." The other, designating the shabby representation of what the statue of "Liberty" is to be in the harbor, remarked, "Yah, und, so helup me, Otta, dare is Cleopatra's needlevork."

Stop the Nonsense.

Donan in the Deadwood Pioneer.

Every little Southern cross-roads paste-pot-and-scissors-slinger, known as an editor, who holds a picayune clerkship in Washington, is writing home to the lilliputian blacking-box label, which he styles his paper, that "the Senators and Representatives of our State rank with the ablest and best at the capital, and are a glory not only to our noble commonwealth, but to the whole sunny land we love." When the truth is that, out of the entire 138 of them from the South, there are not two dozen that were ever heard of except in connection with some foolery of word or deed that has resulted in damage to their section.

Their whole combined influence, for twenty years past, has simply ruined the region and people they are supposed to represent. Their insanity in 1860 elected Abraham Lincoln, and in 1861 brought down the war upon them, and their every achievement since has been a disaster to their region, to themselves and to those who have trusted them and still prate of their glorious statesmanship.

They got the South ravaged with fire and sword. They got the negroes freed and turned into citizens. Their lunatic kicking against the inevitable decrees of fate, got all the penalties of reconstruction imposed upon them. Their ranting about the absolete dogma of State rights has built up a resistless sentiment in the rich and powerful North, in favor of a strong man and a consolidated government, in which they will have little if any voice.

Their mad spurning of Mr. Hayes' conciliatory policy and overtures for harmony between themselves and the Federal government, and their howling, frothy-mouthed gabble about abolishing the army and wiping out the legislation of the war, have united the Solid North against them—have arrayed 35,000,000 of people against 10,000,000—200 electoral votes against 138. And their whole public and private policy has driven emigration and capital from their borders, and enhanced the growth and power and prosperity of the mighty Northern and Northwestern region, which their criminal follies and blunders have made hostile to them. The next census will wipe them out forever, as a factor of any importance in the political, social and financial history or economy of the country. And this is what these backwoods Southern scribblers, picking up beggarly crumbs around Washington, eulogise the very grandeur of statemanship.

A Disappointed Wedding.

Correspondence of the News.

MYATT'S MILLS, Jan. 26.—Yesterday morning it was known that a wedding was to take place at the residence of the bride, and the happy couple, attended by the bridesmaids and groomsmen, were afterward to attend divine worship at the venerable church at Willow Springs, in this township. Consequently at an early hour many had assembled, both members and sightseers. Friendly greetings were exchanged, neighborhood news discussed, the great number that have already married and are still to be married wondered over; but it was plain that every one was more engrossed with the coming event than anything else.

Notwithstanding the cold north wind that was blowing rather strong, many lingered outside late, in the hope of seeing the bridal train dash up to the church in the peculiar manner so becoming the happy occasion. However the majority of the people, driven by the cold, had turned in and were comfortably seated, as many as possible near the windows that command a view of the road from which the bridal party were expected to come. Significant glances and nods were exchanged between those in different parts of the church, and many necks were craned to get one glimpse of the expected party, and it was very evident that brother Wilson's effort to instruct and edify was little appreciated, by a great many, at least, of his hearers.

Our suspense was at last relieved, as we heard a distant but coming sound of dashing wheels drawn by rapid horses, rapidly nearer and nearer, and at last smiles broke from the faces of those near the windows, and nods of assent were given to inquiring looks. Now a new suspense took possession of us, occasioned by the necessary delay of securing the horses, then came a faint tap at the door, which was formally opened, and we almost held our breath to see the bride in all her youth and beauty, attended by suitable grace and fashion, enter, but in rapid succession the bridesmaids alone came in. Surprise, consternation, wonder, inquiry and disappointment passed from one countenance to another, but no satisfactory reason for the absence of the bride and groom could be gathered.

Double the length seemed the balance of the sermon, and we all were very much relieved when, the last hymn sung, the benediction over, we were at liberty to solve the mystery. What was our indignation when we learned that she had "backed out" at the very last moment, and no influence could be brought to induce her to keep her promise, neither would she assign any reason, except that she did not wish to marry, and childishly persisted in crying all the time.

The would-be groom came up after the services were over and manfully faced all that wondering, laughing, inquisitive and talkative crowd of people. Many asked him solicitously about his wife—where was she; why he did not bring her; what was he going to do about it—such a medly of questions that it was impossible to answer them all. Although he said he felt rather badly, his friends have no apprehension that it will kill him or otherwise injure him. But the friends of the young lady are fearful that she has thrown aside a good chance, and that she may do worse, and many are inclined to think that she already regrets her hasty decision, and represent her grieving as in the nursery rhyme:

"She sits in her chamber
Weeping so sore,
Her eyes red with crying
Her Charlie's no more."

A Mistaken Woman.

Kansas City Times.

Among the young ladies who sat at the receipt of customs in a Western church fair, and retailed kisses at the nominal value of ten cents each, was a vinegar-visaged old maid, who had crowded herself in on the gauzy pretence that she felt it her duty to do her share toward helping along the good cause. When it came time for closing, the young ladies turned over to the church treasury from $5 to $10 apiece, while the ancient female handed in a solitary dime, the value of one kiss that she received from a blind man whose taste was so vitiated by tobacco-chewing that he was unable to detect the imposition.

NORFOLK'S SAD EVENT.

SUICIDE OF CHIEF OF POLICE BENSON.

Blows Out his Brains During a Fit of Temporary Insanity—Discovery of the Body—Inquest, Etc., Etc.

Norfolk Landmark, Jan. 29.

About 7 o'clock yesterday morning Officer William Crosby, day turn-key at police headquarters, entered the room occupied by the Chief of Police or Assistant Chief when on duty, and was horrified to find lying on the bed the dead body of Captain C. C. Benson, Chief of Police of this city. He started back and exclaimed "Great God! he has killed himself," and after partially recovering from the shock went and notified the Assistant Chief and Mayor. The head and face of the deceased were covered with blood, his wearing apparel and the bed clothing were saturated with the unfortunate man's life current and there was a large pool on the floor. A pistol lying upon the floor by the side of the bed pointed to the cause of his death, and the far more melancholy fact that it was a case of self-destruction.

Captain Benson was lying on his left side with his head at the foot of the bed and feet resting upon the floor. Officer Crosby immediately gave the alarm, and Dr. J. D. Galt was summoned, who examined the body and decided that life must have been extinct for several hours. The news of the suicide spread like wild fire, and very soon the station house was surrounded by a large and awe struck crowd. The deceased was a very popular officer, and his sad and unexpected death was a severe shock to the community. Inside the station house were assembled the more intimate friends of the deceased, who spoke freely but sadly of his unfortunate condition of mind during the last few weeks of his life, and then recounted with pride his brilliant career as a soldier of the Lost Cause.

Every circumstance indicated that self-destruction was premeditated. The deceased went on duty at 6 o'clock Tuesday night, appeared to be restless and considerably excited; left his room several times and attended to some business, his last entry on the slate having been made a little after 2 o'clock. At the conclusion of the post mortem examination the jury retired, and upon their return submitted the following verdict:

An inquisition taken at Police Headquarters in the Corporation aforesaid, on the 28th day of January, in the year 1880, before James D. Galt, a Coroner of said Corporation, upon a view of the body of Columbus C. Benson, there lying dead. The jurors sworn to enquire when, how, and by what means the said Columbus C. Benson came to his death, upon their oaths do say that he came to his death between the hours of two and seven o'clock this morning, and that the cause of his death was suicide during a temporary state of aberration of mind.

The remains were subsequently conveyed to the residence of his mother on Chapel street.

STATE NEWS.

BUNCOMBE.

ASHEVILLE, Jan. 26.—The weather this morning is quite cool with a stormy gale blowing from the southeast, threatening snow, and many young hearts are gay from the anticipation of a sleigh ride, but what will be the consequences should no snow fall.

Friday night last was the occasion of a grand ball in town, said to have been the grandest affair of the season.

It was a compliment by the young men to the young ladies in return for one Leap Year party given at the Buchanan's on New Year. The scene of action was the "Opera house," and to show the spaciousness of the hall, I have but to say four sets and thirty-five couples were on the floor at one time. Another similar affair is to come off in a short while, represented by a different circle, and in return to a different compliment, I can only say for the one in anticipation that I hope it will not meet with the reproof from the churches when it shall have come off that the other did.

Friday last was also the scene of bloodshed in the village. One man knocked another in the head with a rock, and after being chased over the hills for miles around was finally captured and brought to justice by being fined and bound over to court. The wounded man was thought for some time to be dangerously injured but is now recovering I understand.

A young man, a son of J. P. Gaston, of the western portion of the county, was killed one day last week by accidentally falling from the top of a barn while in the discharge of duty. C.

DAVIDSON.

YADKIN COLLEGE, Jan. 28.—The weather is cloudy and a little rain, but not at all cold.

On Tuesday, the 27th of January, Rev. A. M. Lowe took to himself a wife. Her maiden name was Green. May their days of happiness be multiplied. They had a fine reception here on Tuesday.

Professor T. T. Hicks was in town last Saturday. He has a good school at Shiloh Academy and is a graduate of Yadkin College. He is a scholar and a gentleman, and we are always glad to meet him.

The Town Commissioners had the streets of Yadkin College surveyed the other day and made wider. This is considered a move in the right direction. The streets look much better where they have widened them. P.

GRANVILLE.

BEREA, Jan. 28.—Indian summer in this section and the farmers are busy in arranging for the coming tobacco crop.

For a country place quite a good business is done here, and is paying very well now.

Mr. D. F. Powers and Miss Murcia Blakeman were made one on the 22d.

Harold Tingen died on the 26th, of lumbago and sciatica, after an illness of five months.

From information we may expect that James I. Moore and James Sult will make things lively for the sheriffalty on the Republican side. The Democratic aspirant hasn't raised his head up yet. Time enough.

Last Saturday night, in Dutchville township, Mr. Wistar B. Cash lost his dwelling, corn crib, tobacco barn, stables and fodder stacks by fire. Incendiarism.

Jones C. Patillo left yesterday for Denver, Colorado. Tuton V. Mayfield arrived last week from Dresden, Tenn., where he has resided for the last forty years. He is looking after his interest about Mayfield's Mountain.

The richest lead mine ever seen has been found in Bolden's Mountain, near Mt. Tirzah, in Person county. Riflemen go there and pick up lumps of pure lead of the best quality, from which they run their balls to hunt with. It can be dug out and picked up by the car load.

FRANKLIN.

FRANKLINTON, Jan. 28.—At present the weather is balmy with foggy mornings. Farmers are preparing to plant more cotton than usual.

Trade is generally dull, but was brisk last Saturday. R. F. Hicks, a popular merchant, sold more goods that day than on any previous day this year.

Last Sunday, in Franklinton township, Mr. Pam Satterson and Miss Malice Orris were married.

The probability is that we will hear from the black rooster (John Williamson) for the Legislature this year, provided he has gotten over the whipping that the red rooster gave him in 1874.

Last Sunday as Dr. C. Winston dropped his reins to fasten the gate at Mr. James Weathers', young Jo. Jones rode rapidly by on horseback, which so excited the Doctor's horse that he put off at full speed and would doubtless have torn the buggy into atoms had not some one headed him off in the grove. Some ladies in the yard escaped being run over by dodging behind a tree. Luckily no one was injured.

There was quite an enjoyable ball last Friday night at Mr. Ancis Trailen's, and as Messrs. Solomon Scoops and Simon Pender were returning home their horse ran into a gulch about fifteen feet deep, carrying the buggy and gentlemen with him. They obtained a light and extricated the horse and buggy. No damage except cutting the harness to loose the horse.

Charles J. Ward is building a store house in the rear of Ballard & Green's store. Franklinton is crowding a great many wooden buildings together, and thereby preparing for a first-class fire.

J. W. W.

HARNETT.

HARRINGTON, Jan. 30.—Most of the cotton is sold, consequently trade is dull.

Married, in Harnett county—Benjamin Mason and Miss Jennie Burgess; Walter Parker and Miss Janie McDonald, attendants; Mr. John Scarborough, of this county, to Miss —— Patterson, of Moore.

Died—In Lillington township on the 22d instant, Jesse Stephens, a youth of eighteen years, of hemorrhage of the gums—a disease I never heard of before—though the doctors inform me that there is such a disease, though rare.

The revenue officers made a raid on the barroom of George Dennington, at Lillington last week, and seized a part of a barrel of whisky, it being improperly stamped.

Mr. A. B. Patterson, Sr., the champion turkey hunter of this county, has killed two more turkeys at one shot, making five at two shots. I doubt if many younger hunters can exhibit as good a record.

Mr. J. D. Johnson, of Swann's Station, has sold his goods and rented out his store-house and farm, and is going into the turpentine business at Bladenboro, on the Carolina Central Railroad.

At a party in Stewart's Creek township, the other night, while playing a game of forfeits a young man kissed one of the young ladies, who berated him soundly, saying she had never been kissed by a grown gentleman since she was a baby—calling him a hyena and other pet names, and that he could'nt do as other gentlemen had done—simply bowing when the time for the kissing came. He says as he had already had the kiss, he considered silence as golden, and said nothing. She must recollect that "we will all do it." H.

A "One-Price" Newspaper.

Denver News.

Apropos of the coming circus, the agent of the company, while in this city, related his experience with a country publisher in Iowa whom he approached for the price of a column advertisement. The price was $100.

"How much for two columns?"

"One hundred dollars," was the reply.

"How much for half a column?"

"One hundred dollars."

"That's very singular," said the agent. "How much for a single square?"

"One hundred dollars," replied the publisher, unmoved. "To tell you the truth," he continued, "the day your show gets here I've a note of $100 to meet in bank. I've been waiting for you to come along, and I see no other way to pay it. You can have the whole paper or a single inch; but it will cost you just one hundred dollars."

A PERUVIAN REVOLUTION.

How Don Nicholas de Pierola Upset Things in Lima and Seized the Government.

The following news from Peru is taken from the Panama Star and Herald of the 8th, 9th and 10th instants:

"It seems that the departure of Prado from Lima produced the greatest excitement, that was only allayed by Don Nicholas de Pierola taking command of the capital. Groups of excited citizens rushed through the streets crying out for death to the traitor and refugee. The quiet was but temporary, however, as appears from the following from Lima, December 23, 1879: Don Nicholas de Pierola is to-day hailed as Dictator of Peru. The facts are the following: After the singular departure of General Prado, already referred to, it became evident that the popular dissatisfaction with the government of La Puerta was very great. Pierola's friends were indefatigable. The principal officers of the army of reserve stationed in Lima were carefully sounded as to their inclinations, and the answers must have been satisfactory, for a movement was immediately determined upon. Col. Arguedas, commanding a National Guard regiment, received orders early on Sunday, the 21st, from General La Cotera to send some of his men to the government palace, to be assigned to guard duty there and elsewhere. Arguedas, a sworn partisan of Pierola, stoutly refused to obey these orders.

"Gen. La Cotera then marched against Arguedas, who had barricaded his barracks and placed his men in houses on the plaza. The fight was very severe, but from the outset Argueda's battalion had the advantage. Shielded by the parapets, and with their backs to the descending sun, their fire was much more accurate than that of their adversaries. La Cotera's gunners tried to break down the doors of the barracks with their light field-pieces, and after a fight over three quarters of an hour the government troops retired to the palace, leaving their dead and wounded behind them. A few moments afterward Pierola, at the head of his own battalion, the No. 8, of Lima, appeared in the great square and opened a heavy fire on the palace, which was replied to by the soldiers on the roof and the troops holding the lofty tower of the cathedral.

"The combat was sharp and decisive. Sixty men were killed and two hundred wounded."

The Orphans.

Orphans' Friend, Jan. 27.

The paper goes to press with 154 orphans in attendance. Some have whooping cough, but their general health is good, with the exception of one little boy from Warren, who has pneumonia. His attack has been quite severe, but he is improving slowly.

WASHINGTON.

THE LATEST NEWS FROM THE NATION'S CAPITAL.

Eulogies of the Late Senator Chandler—Conkling and Grant Boom—Interoceanic Canal Scheme.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The eulogies on Senator Chandler, which occupied the time and attention of the Senate this afternoon, were with one exception all composed in good taste and delivered with much feeling. Mr. Ferry, of Michigan, opened with a rather rude and tart reminder of Mr. Chandler's early association in the Senate with certain Southern men that caused much dislike and annoyance to many of the Democratic Senators, who intended to speak also, but after hearing Mr. Ferry they withdrew their names. Mr. Ferry was followed by Mr. Anthony, who spoke in excellent temper and good effect, and he was followed by Senator Bayard, who was the only Democrat that joined in the addresses of the day. Mr. Bayard's remarks were listened to with curious interest by the Republicans, and they confessed at their ending that the Senator from Delaware acquitted himself very handsomely; certainly Mr. Bayard's references to the life of Chandler were admirable in dignified courtesy and exact justice. Hamlin read a short but well-chosen tribute, and then Mr. Blaine, the picture of health and in fine voice, followed the old man with the most impressive and best-toned eulogium of Chandler that the Republicans offered. Gen. Logan took the floor and surprised his party friends by the good temper and spirit of his carefully-written address; then Morrill, of Vermont, then Blair, of New Hampshire, and finally Baldwin, the successor of Chandler, closed the exercises in a modest and dignified review of Chandler's life at home and in Detroit. The galleries were filled even to crowding, but the best order and attention prevailed.

GRANT AND CONKLING.

It is stated by New York politicians who are friends of Senator Conkling that the delegation from that State to the Chicago convention will be instructed to cast a unit vote for Mr. Conkling. This, it is extremely probable, if not altogether certain, will be the case. Mr Conkling then having control of the delegation, the seventy solid votes of New York will be entirely under the control of the lieutenants whom he will have to represent him at Chicago, and will be directed entirely in the interest of the Grant-Conkling combination. The friends of General Grant have plucked up new hope to-day on account of some interesting gossip which has been floating around, and which, so far as it purports to give the utterances of the gentlemen referred to, is believed to be substantially well founded. Gov. Boutwell, of Massachusetts, is credited with the assertion that the delegation from that State would be for Grant. General Logan is said to proclaim openly everywhere that he is for Grant; that Illinois is for him, and that it will give him 40,000 majority. To this, it is added that Senator Conkling has told quite a number of his personal friends that he believed New York could be carried for him by a strong effort, but that it certainly could be carried for Grant.

INTEROCEANIC CANAL.

In his financial speech in the Senate, Tuesday, Mr. Bayard referred to the proposed interoceanic canal as the most important matter pending before the American people, and commented upon it in the same line of thought that was pursued in the resolution offered on this subject by Senator Gordon at the commencement of the session. General Gordon remarked to-day that it was a very important question for Congress to decide whether this canal should be built unless the United States could have control of it, so as to protect her own commercial advantages, and he had expressed this in the resolutions referred to. They were referred to the committee on commerce, of which he is chairman, but he says that the interest in the subject is growing so rapidly, so many petitions have been introduced with reference to it, and so many communications are being made, officially and otherwise, involving questions of international law and public policy, that he has thought it advisable to ask the Senate to relieve the commerce committee of the subject and refer it to a special committee, and he will offer a resolution to this effect at the earliest opportunity, framing it so that this special committee shall sit and act with a similar committee of the House already appointed.

THE CAMERONS AND GRANT.

Pennsylvania Politicians Visiting Washington to Confer with the Senator.

N. Y. World.

WASHINGTON, January 27.—There has been a good deal of talk in political circles here to-day over a conference of Pennsylvania Republican managers at the residence of Senator Don Cameron last night. Yesterday several prominent Philadelphia wire-pullers arrived here, ostensibly to see about the Pennsylvania census supervisors, but really to talk over the political situation with the party chieftains. They were accordingly dined by Mr. Cameron last evening, but it is said that the latter took the precaution not to invite any of the Pennsylvania Republican Congressmen to the feast, so as to prevent any outside gossip concerning their mission here. The matter has leaked out, however, and the substance of the information brought by the Philadelphia politicians is that, despite all their efforts and the efforts of the State Republican machine, the people are growing more averse each day to the third-term idea and are talking loudly in favor of Blaine. Mr. Cameron seemed to realize the situation, and there is no doubt that he is impressed with the necessity of gracefully joining with the masses by deserting Grant at the first opportunity. A Republican member of Congress from Pennsylvania who has all along been in favor of Grant, said to-day that he did not see how the party managers of his State could help favoring Blaine, and unless Cameron was smart enough at least to appear to be for Blaine, the Cameron dynasty in Pennsylvania would get a serious setback next month. In view of the fact that the Pennsylvania Republican Convention is so near at hand, Senator Cameron's manœuvres from this time on will be watched with great interest by politicians hereabouts.

By the Hand of Her Mother.

Charlotte Observer, 29th.

In Statesville, Monday night, a negro woman named Mary Kennedy beat her daughter unmercifully. The young woman finally released herself and ran down town in the hope of finding an officer of the peace, but failing in this, and being overcome by the brutal treatment she had received, she was compelled to return home. The next morning she gave birth to a child which was born dead, and died herself soon afterwards. Her body was considerably bruised and she had received a severe blow on the head, inflicted by a fire shovel in the hands of her mother. The coroner's jury were to have met yesterday and determine whether or not the beating caused death. The circumstances thus far developed indicate that Mary Kennedy, the girl's mother, will be committed for trial as a murderer.

ONCE MORE A PRESIDENT.

Jay Gould Placed at the Head of a Railroad Corporation.

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad Company, running from Hannibal, Mo., via Ledalia to Texas and Vinita in the Indian Territory, has had a remarkable change in its management, by reason of Jay Gould's election as President yesterday. This is the first time Mr. Gould has held any position higher than a Director since his celebrated Presidency of Erie from 1869 to 1874, when the stock was so heavily watered and given away as a corruption fund. He was subsequently compelled to pay back $9,000,000 in securities.

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas road is expected to be consolidated with the Wabash Pacific line, its connection to St. Louis and Kansas City being made over the Missouri Pacific, now virtually owned by Gould.

Railroad Velocipede.

Charlotte Observer.

This curious conveyance is said to be coming into use in some parts of the country. A gentleman who has seen one now being tested by a railroad in Georgia states that they are constructed similar to the ordinary velocipede, except two of the wheels run on one side and what is called the guide wheel is on the rear instead of the front. They weigh seventy-five to one hundred pounds, and can be handled by one man and put off and on the track with ease. They cost about forty dollars, carry one man and are capable of being forced up to a high rate of speed. It is anticipated that it will save the expense of two hands who work the ordinary crank now used.

Jay Gould to a Loafer.

As Jay Gould was walking rapidly through the main corridor of the Windsor the other evening, he was intercepted and stopped by a genteel young man who familiarly said, "Good evening, Gould." The possessor of many railroads paused, looked up, and said: "You've the advantage of me, sir, I fail to recall your name or your face." "That's all right," said the other patronizingly, "Don't know you, but being on the street just thought I'd ask you for a point or two to help me on a flyer, you know." Bystanders say Gould grew perceptibly six inches as he replied in a voice that indicated only indignation: "You are the most impertinent fellow I ever met. How dare you stop me! Stay in the street where you belong." And he went out as if shot from a four-and-twenty pounder.

Contest for the O'Leary Belt.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Nicholas Murphy and Harry Howard signed articles yesterday to walk for the O'Leary belt on April 5. Peter Panchot will sign the agreement to-day. All entrance forfeits are to be sent to William B. Curtis, the stakeholder, at the Spirit of the Times office. F. A. Abeis was agreed upon as manager. One-half the profits of the contest will be divided among the competitors who travel over 450 miles in accordance with the distance they cover. The winner will take the whole amount of entrance money. The contest will take place at Madison Square Garden, the building having been rented for that purpose.

Brignoli's Narrow Escape

Near St. Louis, Sunday, Brignoli, the tenor, missed his footing in attempting to get on a moveing train, and fell between the wheels. He was seen to fall by a brakeman, who leaped down and pulled out the singer from under the wheels. Brignoli was only slightly bruised, but very badly scared.

A dispatch from St. Louis says the tide of negro emigration from the South has set in again. About a hundred arrived there on the steamer Scudder on Sunday, and left for Kansas. As many more came by the steamer John B. Maude Monday night. All have some money, and are chiefly from East Baton Rouge, La., Washington county and Grenada, Miss. They say there are hordes to come. Numbers are waiting on the bank of the river for transportation as thick as rice birds. A colored man, acting as agent, has sent to the relief committee a list of 900 families who, he says, wish to come North.

Two barrels shipped to B. J. Avery & Son, Atlanta, Ga., plow manufacturers, were opened in that city Monday and found to contain the corpses of three half-grown persons, which, owing to recent developments in the vicinity of Atlanta regarding body-snatching, caused considerable sensation. The police were notified, and it was soon found that they belonged to another Avery, a druggist, and were for the Atlanta Eclectic Medical College, and came from near Cincinnati.

It is claimed that the highest rent ever paid for a store on Broadway was $60,000 a year.

Father is Getting Well.

My daughters say, "How much better father is since he used Hop Bitters." He is getting well after his long suffering from a disease declared incurable, and we are so glad that he used your Bitters.—A lady of Rochester, N. Y.

The Mardi Gras Doings at New Orleans.

The celebrated carnival festivities this year have an unusual interest to the public generally, owing to the fact that the great procession of maskers and mummers takes place on Tuesday, February 10th, when on the same day the 117th Grand Monthly Drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery Company occurs, when $50,000 will be given away to some one (it may be you) for $2. For further information address M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., or same person at No. 319 Broadway, New York City. N. Y.

A Curious Game of Chess.

New York Sun.

Four young gentlemen, resident at Pressburg, Hungary, recently undertook to play a match at chess under the following extraordinary conditions: Sixty-four squares were chalked out upon a billiard table and the pieces were represented by bottles containing wines of various qualities. Champagne was the king, claret the queen, Burgundy the bishops, port the castles, and Madeira the knights; while pint flasks of common Hungarian vintages stood for the humble but effective pawns. Of the special playing rules laid down for observance the most remarkable was that which rendered it obligatory upon every player making a move to empty his "piece" at a draught. Faithful compliance with this ordinance, however, was found upon experiment to interfere somewhat prematurely with the progress of the game, for, by the time the opening moves had been executed upon strictly Bacchanalian principles, the players were stretched upon the floor, around and under their convivial chess board.

N. C. EMIGRANTS.

THEIR CONDITION OF SUFFERING IN THE STATE OF INDIANA.

Interview with a Lenoir County Colored Man—Begging for Aid in all Forms.

Indianapolis Sentinel.

The Carolina negroes continue to arrive. Since November 27 over 2,300 have come, and not one to-day is making money enough to provide the necessaries of life for himself and family. In one night 150 of the deluded wretches arrived, and 400 more are expected within ten days. One of these immigrants unbosomed himself to a Sentinel reporter yesterday. The conversation opened thus:

"Where are you from?"

"Lenoir county, North Carolina."

"Why did you come here?"

"Samuel Perry and Peter C. Williams came to us and said get ready and go to Indiana. They 'lectioneered just as they do in election times. They promised that if I came to Indiana I would receive from $2 to $3 per day for any kind of labor, and that I would be provided with a house to live in."

"What other promises?"

"Well, dey said that there were 500 houses built and furnished for us; that we would be given bed-clothing and suits and a milk cow."

"Were you to get work?"

"Oh yes, yes, sir, we was given the privilege of farming for ourselves or working at $3 per day. They said we could buy good land at $1.50 to $2 per acre, and that provisions would be furnished us for seven months, and those who did not buy land would be hired by men as soon as they arrived in the city, right from the trains."

"You have found this true?"

"No, sir; no, indeed. As I stand before the Lord, not one word is as they said."

"You obtained work?"

"I aint heard of it."

"Tell me now," said the reporter, "how much money have you made since you arrived, nine days ago?"

"Ten cents, that is every cent, as true as I am here."

"Have you a family?"

"A wife and six head of children."

"Have you money?"

"Well, I is got 40 cents what I brung with me, nothing to eat, no wood and no clothing. We sleep on the bare floor. They told me we did not have to burn wood here."

"What was it Perry told you about being Republicans?"

"Samuel Perry told me that we must be valiant-hearted Republicans; that they wanted no Democrat niggers in the party, and that we must all show our principles and vote the Republican ticket."

"Of course you agreed?"

"We all told him we would do as we had been doing, and that was to vote that ticket. I want to say to you here that they told us we would be free up here, and I want to say we was as free in North Carolina. There we had work and all we could eat, and voted as we pleased."

"Did they not bulldoze and intimidate you?"

"Not as I have heard on. I worked with my master seven years, and he was a Democrat, and he never once asked me how I voted."

Of the 250 families now in this city, fully one-third are sick with contagious diseases. The city dispensary has furnished for the past month an average of twenty prescriptions per day for these. Along Prospect, West Michigan, St. Clair and South Mississippi streets may be found in each house three to five families, and always two, and sometimes as many as five sick persons.

A prominent colored man told a reporter that not a single negro had come to this town but understood that he was to vote the Republican ticket. Since the publication of the article showing the sickness, poverty and death among the immigrants, the committee from the Christian Aid Society had advised Perry and others in Washington to send the negroes in small numbers, and they had been coming in lots of six and ten families and therefore had not attracted public attention. In the northern part of the city the negroes are a burden to the people. Not a day passes but that they are around asking for aid in all forms—food, clothing and fuel. Some have even solicited small pieces of carpet in which to wrap their babes at night. None have received more than 80 cents a day, and others of the few who have obtained little jobs are paid but 40 and 50 cents.

Cost Over Ten Millions.

Statesville Landmark.

We have built 130 miles of the road, we have yet to build 194 miles. We know the character of the country through which we have already built, and we know something of that through which we are to build. If the 130 miles built have cost $3,000,000—the lowest estimate we have seen—it will be putting it quite mildly to say that the 194 unbuilt will cost $5,000,000. Let us add this to the debt account—interest payable for twenty years and bonds maturing at the expiration of that time—and we have a total of $7,210,000, now paying and to be paid within the next sixteen years on account of this road.

There is no use undertaking to dodge these figures or to conceal them. They will not be dodged or concealed.

Are the people willing to continue their investment in this enterprise? Suppose they are, how long will it be after this road is finished to its termini before they begin to get a respectable interest on the $10,210,000, (counting its cost up to this time at $3,000,000), which they will have, first and last, put into it? The oldest of the great-great-grandchildren of the youngest of us will have died of old age before beginning to realize on the investment.

Another American Arctic Expedition

Preliminary arrangements have been made and preparations are under way for a new American Arctic expedition under the direction of Dr. Emil Bessels, late chief of the scientific staff of the Polaris. The expedition, which is to be fitted out by private enterprise, will sail for the north next year via Jones' Sound, where Dr. Bessels intends to establish a meteorological station, to co-operate with those of the International Congress. At this station a yacht will be kept to maintain communication, while the principal ship of the expedition, a powerful steamer, will explore the unknown regions to the northward and westward.

A Failure.

Any attempt to produce a perfume in this or any other country that can surpass Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes, will prove a failure, for Dr. Price's perfumes are as fresh and sweet as the flowers from which they are made, and cannot be improved.

Prejudice.

The prejudice of many in favor of the old methods of treatment is vanishing before the accumulated evidence in favor of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.

DAILY NEWS

FRIDAY, JANUARY 30, 1880

GEO. C. JORDAN. Editor and Prop'r.

A BILL has been introduced in the Mississippi Senate making it a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, at the option of the court, for railroad officials or employes to give free passes to members of either branch of the Legislature, and punishing members with dismissal for receiving them. It is probable the bill will pass.

IT is estimated that not less than 100,000 cattle were sent to Europe from this country last year. It costs about $25 per head to transport them across the Atlantic by steamer. Nearly all the steamers running to New York, outside the three principal lines, are chartered by one cattle exporter for this business. It is hardly necessary to say that he is the largest dealer in live cattle for exporting in this country.

THE New York world's fair committee is going to Washington this week with a view of getting a bill through Congress to nationalize the project. It does not ask for a money appropriation, but simply that the general government shall invite the participation of foreign nations. The money appropriation, however, it is certain, will come up later in the session, and the expectation is that the New York city delegation will make a special effort to get it through. They stand pledged to that effort.

THERE is no uncertainty in the language adopted by the Philadelphia Board of Trade regarding the proposed introduction of elevated railroads in that city. They say it would be "wholly unnecessary," and that it "would be a wanton violation of the rights of persons and property in that city." The Record says the conclusions of the board are undoubtedly in accord with the views of the great mass of responsible citizens of Philadelphia.

DESPITE the fact that the English government has a regular board of inspection for its coal mines, the number of deaths from accidents in the mines show little decrease; indeed, last year there were more deaths than any year since 1848. Since 1861, there have been no less than 15,900 lives lost in the English mines, an average of nearly a thousand a year. For so many tons of coal so many lives are paid. the estimate in Great Britain is that every 100,000 tons of coal costs a human life, and that one miner out of every 336 is annually killed by accident.

NINE citizens of the town of Ovid, N. Y., have petitioned Congress for $50,000 and 50,000 acres in Texas, upon which they propose to raise coffee, tea and raisins. Covert, the leader of the lunatics, says in his petition that there is a secret about coffee raising known only to himself and family, and he believes that the government would save at least $100,000 by granting the subsidy. How this is to be done is not clearly indicated. If the modest request of the Ovid people is granted, it is safe to say that Congress will soon have more schemes for benefiting the treasury by the cultivation of coffee than it can well dispose of.

THE meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee, pursuant to the call of the Central Executive Committees' is to be held in this city on March 3d. The object of the meeting is to determine the time of holding the State Convention to nominate our candidate for the State ticket and also to appoint delegates to the National Convention. The NEWS led off, first we believe, with the suggestion that the State Convention should be held early. This idea has received the nearly unanimous support of our brethren of the Democratic press. The State is undoubtedly democratic if a full vote is polled. It takes a long and thorough canvass to arouse and bring out our full vote. The prevailing opinion seems to be that the State Convention will probably be held about June 10th. If so, there is only about four months in which doting friends can parade the merits of their respective candidates, and the press will soon begin to glow with correspondents recommending the best men for the different positions.

THE Durham Recorder backs Jarvis and Holt as the team it proposes to back in the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor and Lieutenant Governor. Other papers will soon place their favorites out and we can miss having a choice of first-class material offered.

Owing to its central position, the NEWS proposes to take no part as between the claims of rival candidates for the nomination. It will leave the party to name the candidate and will then cheerfully support him. At present the principal candidates are the present incumbent—Judge Fowle and Colonel Holt, with the odds as between the first two, at present apparently in favor of Judge Fowle. All this, however, may be reversed before the nomination comes off; or, possibly, some yet unnamed gentleman may come to the front and bear off the palm. The NEWS will keep its readers posted as to the chances, and throw up its hat for the winning chieftain.

The Grant Boom Further Declining.

Richmond Dispatch, 28th.

A leading Republican to-day said to me: I tell you upon the highest authority in Washington that Grant is out of the fight, and that Conkling will make an unsuccessful effort to take his place. The contest now is between Sherman and Blaine, and Sherman and the Administration are making a red-hot fight for the nomination. I know whereof I speak. Mr. Jorgensen, of Virginia, and Mr. Martin, of North Carolina, are for him. The Southern Republicans, he added, all remember that Blaine has done nothing for them since the last Presidential election. I think it certain that Sherman's campaign in the South will increase in zeal and strength before very long. The State Executive Republican Committee of Virginia will meet at Richmond on the 29th, and Messrs. Jorgensen and J. W. Woltz will attend. By the way, Mr. Woltz, who has announced himself a candidate for Congress in the Fredericksburg district, is a most ardent Sherman man.

The Census Supervisors.

The Senate Committee on the census, which has before it all the nominations of supervisors, met yesterday, and the nominations were apportioned among the committee according to locality. Senator Morrill has the New England nominations; Senator Kernan those of the Middle States; Pendleton takes Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky; Morgan has Alabama and the other Gulf States; Harris has Tennessee, the Virginias, the Carolinas and Arkansas; Davis, of Illinois, has his own State, Missouri, Kansas, Texas and the Pacific coast, and Cameron, of Wisconsin, has in charge the nominations for the northwest. These gentlemen are directed to inquire into the fitness of the appointees so far as is possible, to hear complaints, and reports upon qualifications. The President withdrew the nomination of Walker Mears as census supervisor for the third district of North Carolina.

Grant in Germany.

Meadville (Pa.) Index.

A young Republican, now resident in Heidelberg, Germany, thus writes in a private letter concerning the experience of General Grant and son in that city:

"General Grant's experience in Heidelberg is not so satisfactory as one could wish the 'representative American.' In the first place he was refused admission to two of the best hotels in town and took up with a second-class one, because his 'agent' who preceded him wished to pay no bills, and 'thought the honor,' etc., was great enough to recompense the landlord. He was told at the Prinz Karl that they did'nt do business in that way, and so went down till he found a second-class hotel which, I suppose, took him in. Some of the professors here did the honors, and he remarked that 'they seemed to have quite a fine univetsity here and a very good castle.' As for the son Jesse—who was with him at that time—he was taken down to the Anglo American club, and there by his talk so disgusted the Americans there gathered that they told him openly to 'cheese it,' and most of them left the room. This I heard from three or four fellows who were present. They said that the talk about 'me and pa' was the most sickening they ever heard. But I don't suppose you can visit the inanity of the children upon their fathers even to the first generation."

Personal.

Gen. Grant has written to Admiral Ammen that after a brief sojourn in Mexico he will go to Denver and Leadville for the purpose of examining the silver field of Colorado. He expects to reach Galena by the middle of April.

The remains of the late ex-Senator Westcott, of Florida, who died last week in Canada, have been taken to Tallahassee, Fla., for burial, despite the fact that in his later years he frequently expressed a wish to be burned.

Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Sullivan have refused an offer of $5,000 from the Boston Theatre for the privilege of producing "The Pirates of Penzance." They intend to send a company themselves to the Bostonians.

"The Pirates of Penzance," Gilbert & Sullivan's latest operatic success, is to be produced in the Broad Street Theater, Philadelphia, next week, under the personal supervision of the authors.

Senator Wade Hampton, who is in ill health, the loss of his son and namesake having caused him to be very much depressed, has gone to Natchez, Mississippi.

Sherman's Friends Moving.

A call signed by over two hundred leading citizens of Columbus, Ohio, business men, manufacturers and bankers, was issued for a convention of Secretary Sherman's friends throughout the State, to assemble in Columbus two weeks hence, with a view of organizing clubs in the secretary's interest in the State. The call, emanating as it does from capitalists and friends of the administration, is regarded as the preliminary move toward placing the Ohio delegation to the national convention solid for Mr. Sherman. The friends of the secretary are decidedly jubilant, and a gathering similar to a State convention is anticipated.

VEST POCKET CURE
25 DYSPEPSIA 25
CLERGY & DOCTORS TESTE.

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C.
I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, (Bap.)
It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va.
Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney, LL. D.,
Col. Va.
It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic, sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient without nausea.

Rev. B. F. Woodward, P. E., Na. Conf.
About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Falling in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va.
I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va.
It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whoe list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in familie from indigestion I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate.
This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seon Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our "National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head, Dandruff, and all itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—I cannot refrain from adding my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have rendered unnecessary all further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have rid me of a loathsome disease. I dispensed with all physicians two years ago, believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it were necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and limbs for five years, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have been treated by Drs — of —, Dr. — of —, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.

April 1st last, I began the use of CUTICURA, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of CUTICURA entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were affected in a more aggravated form, but are now completely healed. I believe myself completely cured. I shall continue the CUTICURA RESOLVENT as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It will afford me pleasure, as I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.

Yours, etc.,

STEPHEN CROWELL.

NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 30, 1878.

A RUNNING SORE

CURED IN ONE WEEK.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER:—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bad case of Salt Rheum. The back of one of my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has remained so up to to-day. E. P. DAGGETT.

MILFORD, ME., June 10, 1878.

NOTE.—Reader, don't you think these cures remarkable?

The Rewards of Literary Labor.

It is said that Eugene Schuyler will receive eight thousand dollars for the right of serial publications in Scribner's Monthly of the life of Peter the Great, reserving all rights to publish in book form on its completion in the magazine. A Card.

RALEIGH, Jan. 27th, 1880.

Editor Raleigh Daily News.

DEAR SIR:—Having sent to and requested the Editor of the Observer to insert the within article, and he having declined the same, you will therefore please insert it in your paper, as a matter of justice to the Wilmington street liquor dealers, and very much oblige a

WILMINGTON ST. LIQUOR DEALER.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 27, 1880.

Mr Editor:

The city editor of the Observer in your issue of to-day publishes the following:

HIS ANNUAL DRUNK.

There is an eccentric person in this county, who, for many years, has been in the habit of getting on an annual spree. He always starts on this as soon in the season as he sees a lizard. Saturday night he was seen, blind drunk, on Wilmington street, and when asked by one who knew his strange ways if the lizards had come out yet, replied that they certainly had, for he had seen about fifty that afternoon. Inquiries were made which revealed the fact that he had gone into a bar room early in the day and taken a drink of Wilmington street whisky, and it was after this that he declared he had seen the lizards. No person who knew the quality of the fire-water they sell on that street doubted its ability to cause an imbiber to see lizards, so the explanation was all right.

Is your City Editor an expert chemist? Has he analyzed the whiskey on Wilmington street? Does he know who are the whiskey dealers on that street?

For the information of your City Editor I would state that the liquors purchased by a majority of the dealers on Wilmington street is bought from first-class liquor houses, and are as pure as any liquors offered for sale in the city, and to the correctness of this statement, a denial is fearlessly challenged.

The liquor dealers on Wilmington street have sufficient respectability to have procured licenses to sell their goods according to law, and are endeavoring to make an honest living, plying an honorable vocation, on the principal business street in the capital of the State, but for the City Editor of one of the leading daily papers to make a wanton, wholesale and sweeping attack upon a whole class of respectable citizens, is simply an outrage that ought not to be tolerated in any community.

A Down-town Merchant.

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists at 25 cents a bottle.

This useful invention meets a long felt need for a more convenient method of removing Oysters, Potatoes, and other fried food, with greater quickness, and all at once, from the boiling fat in which they have been cooked, and allowing the fat to drain from them while they remain over the fire; thereby getting rid more certainly of the superfluous grease, the objection so often made of the unhealthiness of food cooked in the ordinary frying-pan is done away with.

By detaching the supporter, you have an omelettes and other things for which a drainer is not required, a deeper and better quality of frying-pan than has heretofore been made.
